HACKNEY-NORINS SOCIETY MEETS IN SAN FRANCISCO

Drs. Norins & Haggstrom

The Hackney-Norins Society met at the recent AAD meeting in San Francisco. Members of the Hackney-Norins Board met and discussed departmental progress. The reception was held immediately after and was well-attended by friends and colleagues. Dr. Travers gave a short speech to update the group. Highlights included that the Lewis Professorship funding is on track, the new Dr. Theodore Arlook Professorship was announced, and new faculty members Drs. Ravi Krishnan and Anita Haggstrom were introduced to the community. Following Dr. Travers' talk, Hackney-Norins Society President Dr. Chris Rehme presented Dr. William "Joe" B. Moores with the Hackney-Norins Medal for his many contributions of time, talent and treasure to the Hackney-Norins Society and the Department. It was obvious to all that Dr. Moores was touched by this well-deserved award, which is the highest honor given by this society.

NEW FACULTY DOCTORS HAGGSTROM AND KRISHNAN TO JOIN DEPARTMENT

Drs. Haggstrom & Krishnan

It is with great excitement that we announce that Drs. Anita Haggstrom and Ravi Krishnan will be joining the Department. Dr. Ravi Krishnan is a dermatology surgeon who did his dermatology residency at Baylor and is finishing his micrographic surgery fellowship with Dr. Heide Donnelly in Dayton, Ohio. Dr. Anita Haggstrom is a pediatric dermatologist who did her dermatology training at the Medical College of Wisconsin, and a two-year pediatric dermatology fellowship at the University of California San Francisco with Dr. Ilona Frieden.

SCHOOL OF MEDICINE

DR. LOGAN TALKS TO IU DERMATOLOGY STUDENT INTEREST GROUP

On February 23, 2006, the IU Dermatology Student Interest Group hosted a talk by Dr. Patrick Logan at the Indiana University School of Medicine. According to senior medical student Laura Mathis, Dr. Logan showed slides from his many medical mission trips to Honduras and Kenya. He discussed his team's efforts, providing basic medical care and building structures in Nuevo Paraiso and Pedro Alta. The team provided soap, shampoo, toothbrushes, anti-parasitics, and a one-year supply of vitamins for all the patients who were seen. The most frequent dermatologic conditions that he treated were skin cancer, eczema, psoriasis, and serious fungal and bacterial infections. A brief-question-and answer period followed the lecture.

Dr. Logan and Future Dermatologists

The meeting was well-attended by IU medical students and dermatology residents. It exposed them to overseas medical missions and showed how dermatologists can contribute in this setting. It also allowed students to learn more about various possible aspects of dermatology practice. And what a stellar role model Dr. Logan is for our future dermatologists!

KUDOS TO:

Dr. Stephen Wolverton for organizing the very successful tenth Cutaneous Biology Course—over 200 residents from all over the country attended this one and a half-day course this Fall here in Indianapolis.

Drs. Nico Mousdicas and Neda Ashourian for getting their short report on a patient with pellagra in the New England Journal of Medicine.

Dr. Jeffrey Travers for recently being awarded a Veteran's Administration Merit Review research grant.

SPRING 2006 INDY DERM

Mark your calendar! The date for the Spring IDS Clinical Meeting will be the second Wednesday of May (May 10), 2006, and will be held again at the Dermatology Clinic at the Adult Outpatient Center. The conference will begin with patient viewing at 10 A.M., with lunch and the business meeting held at the University Place Conference Center at 12:00. We are thrilled to announce that the 2006 Moores Lecturer will be former chair Dr. Arthur Norins, who will give a lecture entitled, "What I have Seen".

DEPARTMENT OF DERMATOLOGY AND THE HACKNEY-NORINS SOCIETY WELL-REPRESENTED AT THE AAD MEETING

Members of the Department and Hackney-Norins Society were very busy in San Francisco. The busiest faculty by far was Dr. Stephen Wolverton, who gave lectures entitled Drug Eruptions and Toxicities in the Internal Medicine Course, Drug Interactions in the Dermatology Review Course, Drug Controversies in the Therapeutics and How Medications Work Symposium, and Critical Drug Interactions in the Drug Actions Symposium. Dr. Jeffrey Travers directed the Resident and Fellows Symposium, and gave a lecture entitled Tacrolimus and Pimecrolimus: Thinking Outside of the Black Box in the Therapeutics and How Medications Work Symposium. The Gross and Microscopic Symposium hosted presentations from our talented colleagues, including residents Dr. Neda Ashourian who gave a presentation entitled Ulcerative Necrobiosis Lipoidica and Ernest Lee who gave presentations entitled Hyperkeratosis Lenticularis Perstans (Flegel's Disease) in an African-American, Abdominal Kaposiform Hemangioendothelioma with Kasabach-Merritt Phenomenon and Palmoplantar Eccrine Hidradenitis with Exclusively Pulmar Presentation. University of Missouri medical student Holly Hare (along with Drs. Ernest Lee, Nico Mousdicas, and Steven Billings) presented a paper entitled PCR Confirmed Cases of Erythema Induratum of Bazin and Nodular Tuberculid.

Drs. Christopher Boyher, Lawrence Mark, Charles Lewis and Neda Ashourian presented a poster entitled "Interesting Cases from Indiana University". Drs. Neda Ashourian, Steven Billings and Stephen Wolverton presented a poster entitled "Ulcerative Necrobiosis Lipoidica". Drs. Ernest Lee, Nico Mousdicas, Sheila Roumpf and Steven Billings presented a poster entitled "Abdominal Kaposiform Hemangioendothelioma with Kasabach-Merritt Phenomenon". Drs. Ernest Lee, Nico Mousdicas, Sheila Roumpf and Steven Billings presented a poster entitled "Hyperkeratosis Lenticularis Perstans (Flegel's Disease) in an African-American".

IUSOM Medical students were also very busy at the AAD meeting. Ann-Marie Hyatt along with co-authors Megan Landis, Dr. Jeffrey Travers, and Dr. Nico Mousdicas presented a poster entitled "Impetiginized Atopic Dermatitis Lesions Contain Significant Amounts of Lipoteichoic Acid". Kelly Stankiewicz along with co-authors Drs. Ernest Lee and Steven Billings presented a poster entitled "Unusual Presentation and Therapeutic Complications in a Case of Erythema Elevatum Diutinum Presenting in a Patient with Longstanding Leukocytoclastic Vasculitis Being Treated with Colchicine".

Congratulations to all for a great job done!
